Introduction

John Shaw has built up a reputation both as a player and a top coach. He played for England and Great Britain between 1984 and 1996 and has gone on to coach both the England under 21 and under 16 squads.

John has recently teamed up with Totally Hockey to launch coaching academies in selected schools and clubs across the country with his team of international players and qualified coaches. These short, intensive courses ensure your child has top quality pre-season training, taking advantage of the latest coaching techniques. The academies combine a positive learning experience with a memorable programme and our aim is to ensure your child will want to continue playing hockey to an even higher level.

Our objectives

- To develop young players to their full potential
- To coach using latest ideas and coaching techniques
- To teach players how to prepare physically and mentally to help improve their performance

Action packed course

1. The 3 day coaching programme will start at 10 am and will finish at 4pm each day (please arrive at 09.30 for registration on the first day).
2. Children should bring their own packed lunch and drinks bottle.
3. The programme has been designed for both boys and girls and will cover:
 - passing and receiving of the ball,
 - video analysis of technique
 - shot selection
 - set piece play and specialist skills
 - movement with the ball
 - around short corners
 - attack and defence
 - (both attacking and defence).

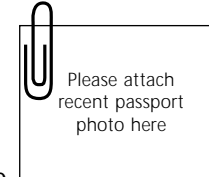

The course includes matchplay and, on the final afternoon, will conclude with a tournament and prize giving.

Places are limited to ensure quality coaching in small groups.
